Worcester BID

Welcome to WORCESTER

For ONE FESTIVAL OF FOOD & TWO WEEKS OF TASTE.

The Worcester Foodie Festival, organised by Worcester BID, will return to the city centre on Saturday 1st and Sunday 2nd August.

The 'nation's favourite French chef' Jean-Christophe Novelli will be running free cookery demonstrations on the main stage in the High Street, whilst Worcestershire based chef Felice Tocchini will be at the stove on Sunday, plus there will be further mouth-watering cookery demonstrations by chefs Richard Fox and Paul Bough on both days.

Why not join one of the free food and drink matching sessions at CrownGate and learn more about pairing different cheeses with beer, wine and cider? You can also brush up on your knife skills with Zwilling in-house chef Paul Bough at the Broad Street master class area.

With free hands-on kids cookery workshops and fun food lab experiments, youngsters will have a great day out too. The little ones can also get creative at the colouring in competition and enjoy free face painting.

Whether you're feeling hungry or thirsty after watching all the demos and participating in hands-on workshops, or if you want to fill up the larder, visitors can browse over 60 stalls with produce from local businesses and selected specialist food and drink providers.

The Foodie Festival will also feature some great roving street entertainment with comedy chefs and stiltwalking gardeners. Live music will be provided by Jamie Knight, Worcester Ukulele Club, Worcester Concert Brass, The Fidgets, Malvern Sax Choir and The Film Orchestra, to name a few.

A brand new event this year is set to get taste buds going when the Worcester Foodie Fortnight will take place at various venues throughout Worcester city centre from 27th July – 9th August 2015.

Foodies can enjoy two weeks of taste by exploring Worcester's fantastic food and drink offer at quality local restaurants, cosy cafés, stylish bars and traditional pubs. Leave the cooking and washing up to someone else and venture out to try special £5 and £10 menus, a food and drink trail, sampling activities, breakfast and lunch club offers, competitions and more will be on the plate.

WORCESTER FOODIE FESTIVAL 2015

JEAN-CHRISTOPHE NOVELLI

Multi Michelin award-winning chef Jean-Christophe Novelli will be headlining the Worcester festival on Saturday. The 'nation's favourite French chef' will be running free cookery demonstrations on the main stage in the High Street.

His passion for passing on his wealth of culinary knowledge to others led him to open his own cookery school, The Novelli Academy based in his personal kitchen at his Hertfordshire farm, which was voted amongst the 'Top 25 Cookery Schools in the World'.

Jean-Christophe is very enthusiastic about healthy cooking, so make sure to see him at the Worcester Foodie Festival to find out more about replacing salt and sugar with his own unique flavours and reduce the amount of saturated fats whilst creating delicious recipes with his assistant chef and great friend Felice Tocchini from Fusion Brasserie, Worcester.

Over his illustrious career Jean-Christophe has written numerous books, with his latest "Simply Novelli" being applauded by food critics around the world. Come and get your book signed at the Worcester Foodie Festival on Saturday. Simply bring your own copy or buy one at the event and meet Jean-Christophe after the demos.

FELICE TOCCHINI

Worcestershire based Fusion Brasserie chef Felice Tocchini will be taking the lead on the main stage on Sunday. Felice is passionate about using fresh, local produce to create delicious food with an Italian twist.

His creativity has resulted in him appearing on numerous TV programmes such as The One Show, Countryfile and The Gadget Show, as well as in the media worldwide for his innovative creations such as Sprout Cake (a concept to encourage children to enjoy these much-maligned vegetables) and the Dunker – a biscuit designed to hold its own when dipped in tea... or champagne!

At present he is working at the acclaimed 'Novelli Academy' one of the top 25 best cookery schools in the world alongside celebrity chef Jean-Christophe Novelli.

At the Worcester Foodie Festival, Felice will be showing visitors how to make a variety of mouth-watering Mediterranean dishes, as well as his delicious summer pudding with basil and chocolate.

KNIFE SKILLS with PAUL BOUGH

It's the perfect time to refresh your knife skills at the Worcester Foodie Festival. In this workshop, Paul Bough, Zwilling J A Henckels, chef will show you how to chop, slice and dice seasonal fruits and vegetables like a pro. Paul will also teach you how to hone and sharpen your knife to keep it in tip top condition.

Contact Cookmate (Broad St) on 01905 27251 to pre-book or visit the master class area in Broad St on the day. The 30min workshops run on the hour at 11am, 12pm and 1pm on Saturday and at 12pm, 1pm and 2pm on Sunday.

You can also join Paul for his free cookery demos at the main stage to learn some handy tips and recipes for al fresco dining. These free sessions are kindly supported by specialist local kitchenware shop Cookmate (Broad Street).

Richard Fox

Richard Fox is a beer expert, renowned for cooking with beer as well as creating gourmet beer and food matches, but his other great passion is on the subject of reducing our food waste by performing cooking demonstrations on the theme of 'Love Food, Hate Waste'.

Richard is an award-winning writer, cook book author and TV chef presenter. He was a regular chef on BBC 2's Food Poker and has appeared on UKTV Food, Saturday Cooks on ITV and The Good Food Show on BBC Radio 4, to name but a few. His most recent book is entitled 'How to be an Everyday Kitchen Magician: Fabulous Food for Almost Free'.

Make sure you view Richard's exuberant and entertaining demonstrations at the Worcester Foodie Festival on Saturday and Sunday. They're free to attend!

FOOD AND DRINK TASTING SESSIONS

Find out more about food and drink matching and join one of the free tasting sessions at CrownGate's Bell Square (near House of Fraser) on Saturday and Sunday.

Tasting sessions will feature a variety of cheeses in combination with local beers and ciders, as well as wines available from local businesses and Foodie Festival stalls. As part of the sessions our cheese experts Martin Mills and Roy McDonald will also be introducing you to 'smorging' – an indulgent grazing style of eating based on the Scandinavian Smørgåsbord – so discover new exciting ways of eating your favourite cheeses.

Free tasting sessions last between 30 and 45 minutes. Participants must be 16 years or over. Spaces are allocated on a first come first served basis on the day.

FREE Kids

COOKERY WORKSHOPS

Children of all ages have the opportunity to experiment and play, while learning how to combine basic ingredients to create delicious bakes at the dedicated kids cookery area outside the Guildhall on the High Street.

Enjoy baking scones and rainbow biscuits or creating fun and exciting food experiments including jelly explosions, edible slime, bicarb rockets & fizzy mocktails.

ENTERTAINMENT AT THE FOODIE FESTIVAL

Liver Cottage Mobile Kitchen

Meet comedy chefs Hugh Fearn and Lee Whittingstall on Saturday and Sunday at the Foodie Festival. As the mobile kitchen garden moves through the event area they create 'fusion food on the move' blending home grown ingredients with food foraged from the corner shop, the streets and of course the audience. Rest assured, Liver Cottage chefs stick to their motto: "Don't leave anyone wanting more!"

Strolling GYO Gardeners

Twin brothers Bob and Tom both love their fruit and veg, but how did one brother grow so tall?!

The answer lies in the special potting compost formula... if you are lucky they might share it with you. On their travels these comedy gardeners bring you skilful, wholesome fun, from field to plate and help the bald to sprout hair, children to bloom in giant flower pots and everyone else to a fun-filled 5-a-day!

Live Music

Take a seat and enjoy your food and drink at the Foodie Festival whilst listening to some live tunes by our talented local musicians. The main band stand is on the High Street (near Clinton's) with further performance areas in CrownGate (near Huntingdon Hall) and on Broad Street (near Angel Place market).

VOTE

YOUR FAVOURITE FOODIE SHOP WINDOW

New for this year is the Foodie Fortnight Shop Window Competition which runs between Monday 27th July and Sunday 9th August 2015.

Not only do food and drink related businesses let their creative juices flow but also a number of galleries, fashion, accessories and outdoor shops have joined the event theme, coming up with some mouth-watering displays. Help us judge their efforts and vote for your favourite window display to enter for a chance to win great prizes, including:

- Meal for 2 (2 x pie & mash and 2 x real ale) courtesy of the King Charles II, New Street
- Box of chocolates courtesy of the Chocolate Deli, New Street
- Scarf courtesy of White Stuff, High Street
